

1. OFFICIANT: [Groom], [Bride] and [Child]
would you please join hands to form your family circle? I am going to ask all of you 3 questions. I would like all of you to answer each of them with, "I Promise!"

Do you promise to love, respect and protect each other from this day forward?

All 3: "I Promise!"

Do you promise to always try to be the best person you can be?

All 3: "I Promise!"

Do you promise to accept the responsibility of being a family, and encourage, and support each other in your new life together?

All 3: "I Promise!"

2. OFFICIANT: These sacred vows are not just between _____ and _____ because you will not only be a new couple, you will be a new family. _____, will you please join us now for the special family rites of this wedding.

(Children come forward)

Do you promise to love and respect your parent's new life together? Children: "We do."

Do you promise to support their marriage and your new family? Children: "We do."

Do you promise to accept the responsibility of being their children, and to encourage them and support them in your new life together as a family? Children: "We do."

3. "God has given us a second chance at happiness. I come today to give you my love, to give you my heart and my hope for our future together. I promise to bring you joy, to be at home with your spirit and to learn to love you more each day, through all the days of our lives. My love for you is endless and eternal."

A decorative border consisting of a repeating pattern of stylized red leaves and branches, framing the central text area.

4. “I offer myself to you as a partner in life. I vow to love you in sickness and in health. I commit myself to encourage you in good times and in bad. I will cherish and respect you all the days of our life together. Starting anew once again, I give thanks that I have found you. May our marriage be a gift to the world and our families, as your love is a gift to me.”

5. “Because of you, I laugh, I smile, I dare to dream again. I look forward with great joy to spending the rest of my life with you, caring for you, nurturing you, being there for you in all life has in store for us, and I vow to be true and faithful for as long as we both shall live.”