

My speech today will be like a mini-skirt.

Long enough to cover the essentials and short enough to hold your attention.

Apparently, it's my job to do all the thank you's, so on behalf of my lovely new wife and I, the biggest thank-you goes to all of you for coming. The day would not have been the same without you and neither would my bank balance! But on a serious note, it is lovely to see so many of you here.

Particularly those of you who have had to travel many miles.

Amy and I would like to thank our parents for all the love and support both emotional and financial they have given us.

And a special thank-you to Vanessa who is responsible for making our fantastic wedding cake.

Sharon, Sue, Vanessa, Ray, Steve

We'd also like to thank Darren for his services as best man today and of course our ushers. You've all done a grand job. Darren, Mark, Jon, Jim, Adam That brings me onto our bridesmaids. Thank-you all for your help and for being there for Amy through the ups and downs of wedding planning! I'm sure everyone will agree that you all look stunning today. Nina, Laura, Charlotte, Kirsty, Fiona, Lillie, Jordan and Emily.

Finally, I would personally like to thank my lovely wife, Amy, for having me as her husband!

I read somewhere that "You don't marry the person you can live with, you marry the person you cannot live without". Well, we've lived together for five years and I know I've married the right person. I'm so glad I can at last call you my wife.

Now all that remains is for me to say please enjoy the rest of the day..... and mine's a foster!
