

.....On a serious note, I'd firstly like to say a big thank you to my new Dad Dave.

I'm proud to be his son-in-law and hope I can live up to his expectations, which should be easy, compared to his other son Mick! But let us not take this Father, Son thing too seriously, as I'm not into 10-mile runs before breakfast like you were in the Paras.

Both Sharon and I would like to say a huge thank you to everyone for coming here today and sharing this special occasion with us.

Especially those who brought expensive presents. Its much appreciated!

Thank you to Edwin and Elsa, Margaret and Linda and many others who have traveled a long way to be here. It's certainly a long way from Brighthouse! We hope you all enjoy the day, have fun, relax and be merry.....
