Clean, creative photo missions for a bride-to-be celebration

HOW TO PLAY

Best for: Large groups, photo lovers, and guests who enjoy creative challenges.

Players: 4–20+ (play individually or in teams).

Time: 30–45 minutes.

Supplies: Phones or cameras, this mission sheet, pens, and an optional prize.

1. Split into teams (or play solo). 2. Set a 30-minute timer. 3. Complete as many missions as possible and take a photo or short video for proof. 4. Keep every activity safe, kind, and respectful; get permission before photographing anyone outside your group. 5. Award one point per completed mission and bonus points for creativity.

MISSION CHECKLIST

- Take a group photo making the same silly face.
- Recreate a favorite photo of the bride (with her permission).
- Make a heart shape with your hands around the bride.
- Take a photo featuring something in the wedding colors.
- Spell B-R-I-D-E with your bodies or arms.
- Pose like the cover of a fashion magazine.
- Capture a photo of the party decorations.
- Record a five-second synchronized dance.
- Take a photo where everyone shows off their shoes.
- Make a human pyramid alternative: a safe, standing group pose.
- Find something old, new, borrowed, or blue (use objects, not personal items without permission).
- Film a 5-second toast with one kind wish for the couple.
- Take a photo of the whole team laughing.
- Create a pretend wedding-table centerpiece from safe nearby items.
- Pose as a wedding cake topper.
- Take a close-up of a sparkly accessory.
- Make a group photo that looks like an album cover.
- Capture a candid moment after asking everyone in the frame.
- Create a heart using objects on a table.
- Take a team selfie with the bride in the center.
